

Colorado-Based Trice Jewelers Announces Launch of Shy Creation Designer Jewelry Line

Trice Jewelers, located in Centennial, Colorado, is honored to announce the launch of designer women's fine jewelry pieces from Shy Creation.

A multiple JCK award winner, every Shy Creation piece is meticulously crafted with unparalleled standards in quality and beauty. In a discussion about these unique designs, Shy Creation founder and chief designer Shy Dayan said, "our main goal is to help you feel confident and beautiful," adding, "we want to see you feeling your absolute best about yourself." As such, Shy Creation Jewelry is hand-crafted with love and attention to detail to create an array of captivating pieces both sophisticated and inspirational.

Proud to present the large selection of Shy Creation pieces, when asked about the launch of Shy Creation in their Centennial showroom, Trice Jewelers' President Justin Klomp stated that, "we are thrilled to become an authorized retailer of Shy Creation. This line of fashion jewelry is gorgeous and we know our customers will love this red-carpet-ready look."

About Shy Creation:

The brother and sister design team of Kathy and Shy Dayan built over many years a stream of fashion designs for today's customers with new pieces developed on a daily basis. Their understanding of style and the market enabled the design duo to increase their design and manufacturing process as the market and fashion jewelry tastes transition and expand.
