

Dec 1 2015

Medicine Wheel
World AIDS Day / A Day without Art
24 Hour Vigil

Medicine Wheel
110 K Street
South Boston, MA 02127

617-268-6700
info@mwproductions.org
www.mwproductions.org

Rotch Park
80 Randolph Street
Boston, MA

Call to artists

"Day Without Art is an opportunity to remember the many lives cut short by AIDS and to reflect on the impact of this cultural loss. But it's also a day to celebrate humanity's shared artistic legacy. Although the AIDS pandemic has claimed hundreds of artists, our continued interest and appreciation for art keeps their work alive. That is something loss will never destroy." Eric Bruehl Getty Museum

Join us at Rotch Park at 11:30 PM November 30 As we open the 24 hour Vigil of remembrance on WORLD AIDS DAY December 1, 2015.

We are looking for artists, healers, mystics, to mark the hours of the day with a prayerful or artistic offering. Opening the Wheel this year are KAIROS Dance Theater's artistic Directors Ingrid Schatz and DeAnna Pellecchia and the Coptic Deacons of St Mark's Coptic Orthodox chanting midnight prayer.

Acclaimed Soprano Nancy Armstrong will sing Ave Maria; Former Buddhist Monk Noel Zopatti McKenna will be offering a chant; Dancer Shaina Schwartz will be dancing; Robert Frankel will lead us in a reading of Kaddish; many of the youth involved with Medicine Wheel will be making offering though out the day.

Please contact Medicine Wheel if you would like to perform or make an offering 617-268-6700 or 617-872-6065 or info@mwproductions.org

<https://twitter.com/MWPBoston/status/666649734430461952>